

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES... MESSIAH FORETOLD

There is no finer teacher on prophecy than Jesus Himself.

A stylized, handwritten signature of the word "Jesus" in a cursive script. The letter 'J' is large and loops around the 'e's, and the 's' at the end is also cursive and loops back.

There is no finer teacher on prophecy than Jesus Himself. Jesus, the Messiah, is found in many pages of the Old Testament (Scripture). Jesus talked about Himself as being the prophesied Messiah throughout His walk as the Son of God... Son of Man.

Jesus, Himself, said in John 5:39, "You [Jewish people] diligently study the Scriptures [which at that time were the 39 books of the Tanak/Old Testament]... These are the Scriptures that testify about me." That should settle the question.

But even a more famous quote was when Jesus rebuked Cleopas, and that other unnamed disciple, as they walked along the road to Emmaus on that first Easter Sunday. Jesus said, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not Christ have to suffer these things and then enter his glory? And beginning with Moses and all the prophets, [Jesus] explained to them what was said in all the [Old Testament] Scriptures concerning himself" (Luke 24:25-27).

King David also predicted the resurrection of Jesus back in 1000 B.C. as he, too, saw what was ahead, namely, that Jesus would not be "abandon[ed] ... to the grave, nor [would he] let his Holy One see decay" (Ps 16:8-11; Acts 2:30-31). Therefore, we, too, should find Jesus present in the events and the predictions found in the Old Testament.

It should not be a surprise that we should find that Jesus was both actually present in the Old Testament as accurately predicted, and that he would come first as the Savior of the world (to the Jew first and then to the Gentiles), and then in a later second coming, would appear as the King supreme over all the earth. This is all considered truth because He was, He is and He is the One to come. However, all too many miss both his real presence in the Old Testament narrative and the numerous predictions of both his first and second advents/comings.

To remedy this, let us see the truth found in the Scriptures as Jesus, the Messiah, was prophesied long ago and of which He fulfilled all Scripture as He walked planet Earth, died a agonizing and painful death, and rose again just as predicted and prophesied.

When Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me," He was fulfilling every prophecy of Scripture because He knew the past, the present and the future. He was in the beginning and He will be crowned King of Kings and Lord of Lords for eternity. Believe today... what was the truth yesterday, today, and forever.
